

Nothing beats the soft static-free feeling of clothes from a natural gas clothes dryer.

- Clothes dried by natural gas are fluffier and virtually static-free, without the use of dryer sheets.
- Clothes dried with the gentle heat of natural gas are never over-dried, increasing the life of your clothes.
- Enjoy fewer wrinkles than clothes dried in an electric dryer.
- On average, you can dry one load of clothes in about half the time compared to an electric dryer.
