

Important Address Update for Washington Conservation Rebate Applications

To better serve our customers' needs, Cascade will now use one mailing address for our Residential and Commercial Conservation Programs in Washington. Effective September 1, 2010, all Washington Conservation Incentive Applications should be mailed to the following address:

Cascade Natural Gas Corporation
Energy Efficiency Conservation Program
c/o Lockheed Martin Energy and Environmental Services
22121 - 20th Ave SE
Bothell, WA 98011

If you are currently in the process of applying for an incentive through our Residential or Commercial Conservation Incentive Programs, please send your rebate application to the address above.

If you have any questions, please contact Cascade's Conservation Program at 1-866-626-4479.
