

Notice to our Customers

Please note - Cascade Natural Gas customers who are members of Indian Nation tribes and reside on tribal lands, may apply for a waiver of the Washington State Business and Occupation Tax from their utility bills.

Per Washington Administrative Code (WAC) 458-20-192 (Rule 192), income from the performance of services in Indian country for tribes and tribal members is not subject to public utility tax.

In the Community to Serve®

If you are an enrolled member of a federally recognized Indian tribe, you may complete a waiver to have the state utility tax of 3.852% excluded from your natural gas billing. The waiver can be accessed on the Department of Revenue Washington State website at:

http://dor.wa.gov/docs/forms/excstx/exmptfrm/publicutiltxexmptfrsvcsprvdtointnrbesandprsns_e.pdf

The completed waiver should be mailed to Cascade Natural Gas at:

The form requires the following information be provided to the utility:

- Name of customer receiving the utility service
- Address where utility is received
- Name of federally recognized Indian Tribe to which customer belongs
